

TD SUMMER READING CLUB

BINGO

Complete five of these activities each week. Each activity is based on a skill building practice that will help your child develop literacy skills.

talk about
the pictures
while you
read a book
together

sing a song
at bedtime

borrow some
great books
from the library

sing songs
that include
numbers

make a craft
together

talk about what you are doing
and what you
are going to

listen to music and
clap along

read a
concept.
shapes,
numbers,
opposites or
alphabets

show your child how to write their
name and let them try it

pick a recipe
and try to
bake or cook
together

pick up items
and describe
them

do some
finger play
and action
rhymes

read a book
in a chair,
sofa or on
the floor

go to a
program at
the library

go for a walk
and talk
about what you see

Borrow music,
listen to the radio
or download
music from Freegal through Pickering Library

read a book
that makes
you laugh

have your
child help
write your
shopping list

make a puppet
and act out
your favourite
story or make up your own

point to
letters and
words on the
signs you
see

sing a silly
song

read a non-
fiction book
and learn
something
new

write a story
with your
child

play 'I spy'

for ages
0 to 5 years

HELLO
SUMMER!

